DETAILED ACTION

Response to Remarks

1. The applicant has cancelled claims 1-7,15,20-43 and added new claims 44-68.
2. Claims 8-13 were indicated allowable in the previous office action and remain in allowable form. The applicant has amended claim 14 to include indicated allowable subject matter. Claims 14-19 are in allowable form. The new claims 44-68 either depend from claims already in allowable form or are independent claims that include the allowable subject matter from claims already indicated as allowable. Therefore, claims 44-68 are in allowable form

Allowable Subject Matter

3. Claims 8-14,16-19,44-68 are allowed.
4. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: Prior art Zeevi et al. (US 2004/0005068) discloses a dynamic normalization of sound reproduction including storing and checking for the volume normalization (amplification factor) in a media library. Prior art Cliff (US 6,534,700) discloses an automated compilation of music. Prior art Kincaid (US 7,072,477) discloses a method and apparatus for automatically normalizing a perceived volume level in a digitally encoded file including storing and checking the audio file for a scaled normalization gain factor. Regarding claims 8,13,51 and 56 the prior art or combination thereof fails to disclose or make obvious determining whether volume normalization parameters associated with the audio file are stored in a media library or stored in the audio file, if not stored in the media library, i.e. there is no teaching nor suggestion in the references of combining the methodologies, specifically determining whether the parameters are stored in an audio file after first determining whether the parameters are stored in a media library.

Regarding claims 14,19,61 and 65 the prior art or combination thereof fails to disclose or make obvious mapping function having two portions, one quadratic and the other linear. Therefore the prior art or combination thereof fails to disclose or make obvious a method for normalization, a computer storage media encoded with a program, a computer and a device as claimed.

Claims 9-12,16-18,44-50,52-55,57-60,62-64,66-68 are allowed due to dependency on claims 8,13,14,19,51,56,61 and 65.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
